I have sent my resume to MD. Shahriyar Hassan. He is employed with Programming Hero. His main responsibility is to assist companies in hiring JavaScript, ReactJs, and NodeJs developers globally and remotely at no cost. I knocked him through LinkedIn. I requested him to review my résumé and provide me feedback. He was quite useful. He provided me with his valuable time and told me about my resume's shortcomings in a Google meet session. He also advised me on what I should improve, what I should include, and what I should avoid. I owe him a debt of gratitude. Then, following his advice, I revised my resume, and finally, I completed my resume.
